THE MORNING DAWN

And Shows no Abatement in the Feeling Against the Third Term--The West Virginia Delegation--The Split in New York and Pennsylvania--Cameron to be Succeeded.

(First Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, June 1. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

ORGANIZATION OF THE WEST VIRGINIA DELEGATION.

The West Virginia delegation met this morning at their headquarters in the Palmer House, and after an organization by the selection of A. W. Campbell, chairman, and W. J. Burley, secretary, they elected Hon. J. M. Hagans, representative on the Committee on Credentials.

On C. D. Hubbard, Committee on Pensions; J. H. Riley, Committee on Permanent Organization; and A. C. Moore, Committee on Rules and Order of Business.

THE CONTENTING DELEGATION.

The Contenting delegates from the Third district have arrived, and have the papers presenting their case with the Chairman of the National Committee.

CAMERON TO BE SUCCEEDED.

The National Committee are again in session this morning, and I have just been informed that they have agreed to supercede Chairman Cameron. The feeling against the third termers grows in strength.

NEW YORK BOLTERS.

The New York bolters to the number of sixteen published a card this morning announcing their intention to vote against Grant in the Convention. They say his nomination would be perilous to the Republican party.

THE SPLIT IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Mr. Lemberg, a delegate from Pennsylvania, has just left the West Virginia delegates after stating that twenty of his delegation, and possibly twenty-two, will break away from Cameron and vote for Blaine.

ALL SEVERE.

Things look very gloomy for victory over the great Presidential ring.

CAMERON'S ADVOCATES.

The Grant Column weakening all along the line--The Third Term Specter Following--The Unit Rule Ghost Gone Glimmering.

(Second Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, June 1. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

Cameron has succumbed to the pressure of the Grant men, and has agreed to abandon all attempts to apply the unit rule in the preliminary organization of the Convention.

GRANT WILL BE TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

The arrangement of last night, by which Senator Hoar of Massachusetts, was selected to act as temporary Chairman, will be carried out as agreed upon.

THE BRISTLE BREAKING.

The Grant column has weakened all along the line, and it is now thought that his name will not be presented to the Convention.

THE CRISIS PART.

General Garfield tells me that he thinks the crisis is past, and that the defeat of the third termers is pretty well assured.

and denouncing the bolt, but notwithstanding his appeal there were twenty-three votes in the delegation against the unit rule.

BLAINE, SHERMAN, OR EDMUNDS.

The question now is who will be nominated--Blaine, Sherman, or Edmunds?

CONCILIATING THE GRANT MEN.

There is an apparent disposition manifesting itself in some quarters to conciliate the Grant men, and let them down easy by deferring to their wishes outside of Grant, and it is not impossible that whoever they may designate will be the FINAL CHOICE OF THE CONVENTION.

The anti-Blaine men say it will never be Blaine, but that it may be Sherman or Edmunds.

THE CLOUDS PASSING AWAY

And the Clear Sky Discovers Blaine's Star to be the Brightest--Grant Lacks Seventy-five Votes of a Nomination--His Name Will Probably Not Be Presented.

(Fourth Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, June 1. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BLAINE WILL START OFF WITH 300 VOTES.

There was a confidential Conference of the leading supporters of Blaine to-night, at which facts and figures were submitted showing that he would start off with 300 out of the 756 votes.

WHAT IS LEFT FOR GRANT.

The Sherman men claim one hundred and forty votes, and this number is generally conceded, Edmunds, Washburne and Windom are known to have 55 votes among them. This would leave Grant only 255 votes against 411. The ring have been claiming for him and allowing him 300 votes, and yet he falls 79 short of a nomination. In view of these well authenticated figures to-night there is a rising boom for Blaine.

BLAINE'S STAR THE BRIGHTEST.

Ellis H. Roberts, editor of the Utica Herald, Conkling's former home organ, told me a few moments ago that he had met six journalists this evening who concurred in saying that Blaine's star appeared to be the brightest one in the sky to-night.

GRANT'S DECLINATION POSSIBLE.

As I telegraphed this afternoon it is not at all impossible that Grant's name will not be presented to the Convention. It is said that there is a letter from him declining the nomination, in which he takes the ground that this is his first proper opportunity to decline.

NO NOMINATION BEFORE FRIDAY.

Engene Hale expressed the opinion to-night that a nomination would not be reached before Friday.

WHAT IT HINGES ON.

The situation up to noon--How the members of the National Committee stand on Cameron's Deposition--The Massachusetts Vote Will Go to Edmunds First, Sherman Afterward--Conkling, Cameron and Logan Reported to Have Made Concessions.

To the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 1. The excitement which seemed to prevail in this city last night is exceeded by the excitement of to-day. There are more people in the city, and the new arrivals entered at once into the contest as partisans of one or the other candidate.

THE UNIT RULE RESOLUTION.

It having been announced that at 11 o'clock an adjourned meeting of the National Committee would be held and that on a further refusal of Mr. Cameron to entertain the anti-unit rule resolution would result in his immediate depolation, the rush was for the vicinity of the committee rooms, where the question at issue is now being wildly discussed.

THE TWO OPINIONS.

There are two opinions among the majority of the Committee. One is led by Ex-Senator Chaffee, who is for the removal of Cameron, and the radical change of all the Committees. The other is held by such men as Governor Jewell of Connecticut, who will only consent to the removal of Cameron, upon the refusal of Senator Conkling and other Grant leaders, to promise not to seek to enforce the unit rule in the preliminary organization.

ALL SEVERE.

Things look very gloomy for victory over the great Presidential ring.

CAMERON'S ADVOCATES.

The Grant Column weakening all along the line--The Third Term Specter Following--The Unit Rule Ghost Gone Glimmering.

(Second Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, June 1. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

Cameron has succumbed to the pressure of the Grant men, and has agreed to abandon all attempts to apply the unit rule in the preliminary organization of the Convention.

GRANT WILL BE TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

The arrangement of last night, by which Senator Hoar of Massachusetts, was selected to act as temporary Chairman, will be carried out as agreed upon.

THE BRISTLE BREAKING.

The Grant column has weakened all along the line, and it is now thought that his name will not be presented to the Convention.

THE CRISIS PART.

General Garfield tells me that he thinks the crisis is past, and that the defeat of the third termers is pretty well assured.

C.

Louisiana, Kansas, Utah and Illinois should be admitted to the temporary organization; that contests in these States should be submitted to the Committee on Credentials, and that the unit rule should be enforced or not at the pleasure of the Convention; that Conkling, Logan and Cameron have pledged themselves to interfere in no way in regard to the action of the Convention respecting the unit rule. The Committee decided to redistribute their votes at 2:30 A. M.

THE NEW YORK DELEGATION.

Their Decision on Enforcing the Unit Rule.

To the Western Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 1. The New York delegation had a long and stormy session to-day over the unit rule question. Conkling insisted that the State would vote as a unit, and refused to believe in the authenticity of the signatures to the manifesto mentioned in last night's dispatches, until personally assured by various signers that he had actually signed it. He made personal appeals to the so-called kickers with the exception of four whom he warmly accused of perjury and who responded as warmly in their own defense. Finally after four hours session a vote was taken on the question of sustaining the unit rule and stood 45 for, 23 against, not voting 2.

VOICES OF THE NIGHT.

The Grant Leaders in Secret Conference--They are Less Confident of Success, but Claim that they will Eventually Pull Through--Rumors Pro and Con--The Solid Blaine Delegation from West Virginia Admitted.

To the Western Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 1. The movement of the Grant leaders about the Palmer House this evening gave rise to much query, and when Cameron, Conkling, Logan and a large part of their followers assembled in one room at ten o'clock to-night, the curiosity was redoubled and the activity of correspondents was largely increased.

GRANT MEN LESS CONFIDENT.

From facts which have leaked out, it is now known that the Grant managers are much less confident of securing his nomination on the first ballot, in fact, are pretty well convinced they cannot secure it. If they should not, and should fail to secure an increased vote on the second ballot, it is stated that much circumstantial evidence indicates that the Grant leaders have decided to throw the votes which they control, some 300 or 325, for Edmunds. The claim is made that this as against any other candidate or combination. The meeting to-night is said to have this ultimate object, although the Grant men still keep a strong front and claim they have about 400 votes. It is a common expression on the street to-night, that the second ballot will be a mere formality, and that the third and fourth choice will be made on the first ballot.

WORLD NOMINATE EDMUNDS

REMOVAL OF SHERMAN'S WITHDRAWAL.

There was a rumor on the street to-night, that Sherman had withdrawn, but when traced up it proved to have no foundation than a telegram which he is said to have sent to a friend saying that the unit rule ought to be beaten, and advising that it be done, even if it should sacrifice him.

THE UNIT RULE BEATEN.

The anti Grant men say the unit rule is now beaten, even if the vote is taken by States, for many of the States have decided to-day to vote against that rule, despite the fact that a majority of their number favor General Grant. If the unit rule is abolished, as it will undoubtedly be, the opponents of General Grant claim the individual vote would make a majority against it of over 100.

THE PENNSYLVANIA BREAK.

The Pennsylvania delegation took a vote on chairman, and elected Cassa by a vote of 55 to 21 over Beaver. The 21 votes were all from Blaine men, and the vote is regarded as a test of the feeling respecting the unit rule. A paper similar to that signed by the New York delegation was circulated among the Pennsylvania delegation to-day and received 21 signatures. To affect the break in these two States, the Grant managers are canvassing among the Southern States and claim gains.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT.

The Grant leaders have made a claim that if the Illinois contestants fail to gain seats their chances for nominating Grant are assured and that the danger of defeat will be passed. The friends of Sherman and Blaine on the other hand express confidence that they have made gains against those of New York and Pennsylvania.

NOT DECIDED YET.

The National Republican Committee, which met this afternoon, did not decide that Louisiana should be admitted to the temporary organization. That question is undecided. It was not decided that the regular delegates should be admitted, as was stated in an early dispatch.

WEST VIRGINIA GOES IN SOLID.

They also decided to admit the regular delegations from West Virginia, Illinois, Utah and Kansas.

A ROOM FOR SECE.

Senator Bruce was serenaded at the Coleman Mills, and about 1,000 men from the Iron and Steel Company's Mill. The whole number of men in both mills is about four hundred and fifty, of which about three hundred are in Coleman's Mill. Sopping work in the puddling and rolling mills is about to be resumed. The proprietors of the Coleman mills say they will not accede to the demand; that they would prefer closing the shops all summer, as prices are too low to admit of an increase of expenses. They state that the market is heavy, and consequently they are not anxious for contracts at existing rates, the probability, therefore, is that the mills will remain closed. The old Louisville Rolling Mills will not be affected, they are about to remove to Birmingham, Ala. Their works here are closed.

the interest of the candidacy of General Grant. There was a large gathering, and numerous eminent military leaders were present, including Gen. Horace Porter, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, Corporal Tanner, Col. Wertzell and Gen. Hickelcooper. General Stewart, of Woodford, was made chairman and several enthusiastic speeches were made. Lieutenant General Sherman was loudly called for but only bowed and made no speech. Resolutions were adopted declaring the favor of the principles of the Republican party, demanding an equal right of protection of Republicans in the South, and that General Grant was the choice of the meeting for the Presidency. The latter resolution met strong opposition, Bonnette, of Maine, Congressman Bonroughs and others opposing it in various and testing to divide the Republican party. The vote was close but the Chairman declared that it was carried.

Blaine in His Seat at Washington.

The Plumed Knight Does Not Think it Will Be the Silent Man, Anyhow--Sherman Men Satisfied With the Situation--The Drift Against Grant.

WASHINGTON, June 1, 1880. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

Everything is absorbed by the Chicago Convention, and the interest in Congressional affairs grows weaker as the day for the nomination approaches.

BLAINE IN HIS SEAT.

Senator Blaine was in his seat to-day, and in good spirits. He told Senator Hereford that whoever might be nominated, Grant would not be.

CAMERON'S DEPOSITION.

It is said that the rumors of Cameron's deposition are untrue, as a dispatch received at the Blaine headquarters to-night states that Cameron will stay and obey the instructions of the Committee, and that Senator Hoar will be made temporary Chairman of the Convention.

SHERMAN MEN SATISFIED.

The Sherman men are well satisfied with Hoar, who, they say, favors the Secretary of the Treasury rather than Blaine.

WHAT MOULTON SAYS.

A dispatch received here from Col. C. F. Moulton this afternoon, says the tide is running in Sherman's favor.

IT CANNOT WIN.

Both the Sherman and Blaine managers here say that the unit rule dodge cannot be sustained. If the Committee cannot handle Don Cameron the Convention will, and the only object in depositing him is to avoid a row.

THE DRIFT AGAINST GRANT.

The Grant men in this city admit that the latest advices from Chicago show that the drift of things is against them.

FOREIGN NEWS.

RUSSIA.

BERLIN, June 1. The report that Russia has enacted a protective customs duty on imported raw iron has caused much feeling among German protectionists. Several journals which themselves advocate the protectionist policy as far as Germany is concerned, are exercising its influence on the decision of the Russian Government, but it may be affirmed that our neighbors' trading hostility is a bad means of promoting universal peace.

THE BROKEN CHANCELLOR.

BERLIN, June 1. Prince Gortschakoff arrived here to-day from St. Petersburg. He appears dejected and almost unable to walk. He continues to be chancellor only in name, not even being officially informed of the current business of the Russian government. It is stated that the Czar continues his policy of conciliating the Poles, and intends to abolish the oppressive tax on landed proprietors.

THE NIGHT BEFORE.

The Men Within Two Miles of Each Other and Everything Quiet.

It became very evident on Monday afternoon, at Pittsburgh, that a place of meeting had been definitely arranged between Goss and Ryan, whose presence in the city was well known to the authorities, and whose supposed plans were freely ventilated in the evening papers. An intelligence reporter, who had been detailed to witness the affair if it came off within West Virginia's limits, was at the Union Depot when Ryan and his party came to take passage, and by a little cautious inquiry ascertained that the party would leave the train at Collier's Station. The news that Ryan was on the train soon spread through the depot, and the car in which the pugilist was seated was the center of attraction for the loiterers inside the depot railing. By two and three the sporting gentry boarded the cars, and when the train left the depot there was a great throng of spectators whose destination was the same as that of the ambitious young pugilist. Two Pittsburgh detectives, O'Mara and McGovern, were of the party, who it came to be generally understood, had undertaken to prevent the fight taking place in Pennsylvania.

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT.

LONDON, June 1. Mr. Strahan, a well-known publisher, has sailed for the United States. One object of his journey is to ascertain whether American publishers are not willing to agree to some better compromise than the one of the many which have been suggested in the United States, relative to international copyright.

THE LABOR LISTS.

A Thousand Smokeless Furnaces in Pittsburgh and Vicinity--How Long Will This Thing Last?

PITTSBURGH, June 1. With midnight last night, and in some cases with daylight to-day, labor at the 550 boiling furnaces of this city and 150 in the vicinity ceased, and the "lockout" began. To-day the atmosphere does not show any increased clearness, but the increase in the number of idle men on Fifth avenue was noticeable by noon. The exceptions to the rule are noted below. Singer, Nimick & Co. run only six furnaces, and their signing is as regarded as of weight by other firms. As the number of men idle in consequence of this difference between labor and capital, a veteran iron-worker states that each furnace represents at least ten men directly connected with its operation. The coal diggers, drivers, etc., will more than double this number, and the grand total will not be far from 25,000 men and boys.

At the Iron Association's rooms, within the past few days telegrams have been received from distant mills affected by the strike. All ask questions in regard to the action of Pittsburgh mills. Brown, Bonnell & Co. stated that they would strike on an advance of 50 cents per ton, and both mills closed up and quit work to-day. The demand for an increase was made upon the mill proprietors Saturday through a committee appointed by the strikers. They have asked for a 10 per cent increase, and a 10 per cent advance on the price of the iron. The proprietors of the Coleman mills say they will not accede to the demand; that they would prefer closing the shops all summer, as prices are too low to admit of an increase of expenses. They state that the market is heavy, and consequently they are not anxious for contracts at existing rates, the probability, therefore, is that the mills will remain closed. The old Louisville Rolling Mills will not be affected, they are about to remove to Birmingham, Ala. Their works here are closed.

LOUISVILLE.

Strike at the Rolling Mill of the Iron and Steel Company.

LOUISVILLE, June 1. The puddlers employed in the Coleman Rolling Mill and Louisville Iron and Steel Co., are on a strike, and an advance of 50 cents per ton, and both mills closed up and quit work to-day. The demand for an increase was made upon the mill proprietors Saturday through a committee appointed by the strikers. They have asked for a 10 per cent increase, and a 10 per cent advance on the price of the iron. The proprietors of the Coleman mills say they will not accede to the demand; that they would prefer closing the shops all summer, as prices are too low to admit of an increase of expenses. The old Louisville Rolling Mills will not be affected, they are about to remove to Birmingham, Ala. Their works here are closed.

NOT DECIDED YET.

The National Republican Committee, which met this afternoon, did not decide that Louisiana should be admitted to the temporary organization. That question is undecided. It was not decided that the regular delegates should be admitted, as was stated in an early dispatch.

WEST VIRGINIA GOES IN SOLID.

They also decided to admit the regular delegations from West Virginia, Illinois, Utah and Kansas.
